FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Exelon to Nominate Independent Directors for NRG Board

CHICAGO (Jan. 30, 2009) — Exelon Corporation (NYSE:EXC) announced today it has proposed a slate of independent nominees for election to the Board of Directors of NRG Energy, Inc. (NYSE:NRG) at the NRG 2009 annual meeting of shareholders, together with a proposal to increase the number of NRG directors from 12 to 19. Exelon said it would nominate nine highly qualified, independent candidates for election at NRG's next annual meeting of shareholders. The slate includes sitting and former CEOs, and corporate governance experts.

"We believe NRG shareholders deserve a board that will act in the best interests of NRG and its shareholders," said John W. Rowe, Exelon chairman and CEO. "We are looking forward to election of nominees who will exercise their fiduciary duty and act in the best interests of NRG and its shareholders and who will take seriously the value creation opportunity represented by the proposed combination with Exelon in comparison with any other strategic choices NRG may have. NRG shareholders have shown their support through their participation in Exelon's exchange offer."

Four nominees are proposed to replace the NRG Class III directors who are up for election at the 2009 annual shareholder meeting. The nominees are: Betsy S. Atkins, Ralph E. Faison, Coleman Peterson and Thomas C. Wajnert. Exelon is also proposing five nominees to fill vacancies created from the proposed expansion of the NRG board to 19 directors. Those nominees are: John M. Albertine, Marjorie L. Bowen, Donald DeFosset, Jr., Richard H. Koppes and Ralph G. Wellington.

If the NRG board is expanded and the entire slate of directors nominated by Exelon is elected, it will represent slightly less than a majority of NRG's board of directors. The two remaining seats on the expanded board would remain open to NRG's own director nominees. Exelon said that its decision to leave two seats open was designed to avoid a change in control of NRG that could trigger a requirement for NRG to pay a significant amount of its debt.

"Exelon is confident that with an expanded and reconstituted NRG board, a majority of NRG directors will exercise their fiduciary duty and vote for the clear path to shareholder value," said Rowe. "Despite the substantial premium our proposal represents to NRG's stock price as of October 17, 2008, and the large number of shares of common stock tendered into Exelon's exchange offer, NRG's current board and management have continued their refusal to allow due diligence – an essential step for a company that takes its fiduciary obligations to shareholders seriously and wants to create shareholder value. We strongly encourage NRG shareholders to support the slate of director nominees, and to tender their shares into Exelon's exchange offer to further drive this point home."

Notice of Stockholder Business

In addition to seeking the election of the Stockholder Class III Nominees as Class III Directors, in accordance with Article Seven of NRG’s Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation¹, Exelon intends to seek to amend Article III, Section 2 of NRG’s Bylaws to expand to 19 the number of Directors that constitute the Board. Exelon is proposing to increase the size of the Board in order to nominate, and to solicit proxies from the other NRG stockholders to permit the election of, additional directors to the Board who will use their independent judgment and act in good faith and in accordance with their fiduciary duties to the NRG stockholders. In order to increase the size of the Board, Exelon intends to bring the following resolution before the 2009 Annual Meeting (“Proposal 1”):

RESOLVED, that Article III, Section 2 of the Bylaws shall be amended to read in its entirety as follows:

“The number of Directors which constitute the entire Board of Directors of the Corporation shall be 19, and the Directors shall be elected and shall hold office only in the manner provided in the Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation. The directorships of the Corporation shall be divided into three classes with there being seven directorships in Class I and six directorships in each of Class II and Class III.”

Exelon further believes that, pursuant to Article Seven of NRG’s Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, the size of the Board may be enlarged by the stockholders if such enlargement is approved by a majority of the shares of Common Stock outstanding. Accordingly, Exelon believes that, in order for the size of the Board effectively to be amended by the adoption of Proposal 1, Proposal 1 must be approved by holders representing (i) a majority of the combined voting power of the shares entitled to vote on the amendment at the 2009 Annual Meeting and (ii) a majority of the shares of Common Stock outstanding (the “Requisite Approval of Proposal 1”).

Nomination for the Election of Additional Directors

Exelon intends to nominate, and to solicit proxies from the other NRG stockholders to elect John M. Albertine, Marjorie L. Bowen, Donald DeFosset, Jr., Richard H. Koppes and Ralph G.

¹ In a letter dated November 17, 2008, from Tanuja M. Dehne, Deputy General Counsel and Secretary of NRG to Bruce G. Wilson, Senior Vice President and Deputy General Counsel of Exelon, Ms. Dehne states: “NRG agrees that Article Seven allows for the expansion of the Board by action of the common stockholders.”

Wellington (the “Additional Stockholder Nominees”) to the Board to fill five of the vacancies resulting from the increase in the size of the Board pursuant to Proposal 1. The election of the Additional Stockholder Nominees will be contingent upon obtaining the Requisite Approval of Proposal 1. Notice of Stockholder Business

In addition, at the 2009 Annual Meeting, Exelon intends to seek to repeal any amendments to NRG's Bylaws adopted by the Board without the approval of NRG's stockholders after February 26, 2008 (which is the date of the last amendment to the Bylaws publicly disclosed by NRG) and prior to the effectiveness of the resolution below ("Proposal 2" and, together with Proposal 1, the "Proposals"). Exelon believes that it is in the best interests of NRG and its stockholders that the Bylaws not be further amended by the Board without the approval of stockholders. Therefore, Exelon proposes to repeal all amendments, if any, adopted by the Board after February 26, 2008, including any amendments that the Board has adopted, or might adopt, to impede the nomination of the Stockholder Nominees or the proposal of matters for stockholder action by Exelon, to negatively impact Exelon's ability to solicit and/or obtain proxies from NRG stockholders, to undermine the will of the NRG stockholders expressed in those proxies or to modify NRG's corporate governance regime. In order to repeal such amendments, if any, Exelon intends to bring the following resolution before the 2009 Annual Meeting:

RESOLVED, that the Bylaws are hereby amended to repeal any amendments thereto adopted by NRG's Board of Directors without stockholder approval after February 26, 2008 and prior to the effectiveness of this resolution.

Proposal 2 requires the approval of the holders of a majority of the combined voting power of the shares entitled to vote on the amendment at the 2009 Annual Meeting.

Exelon represents that it intends to deliver a proxy statement and form of proxy to holders of at least the percentage of Common Stock and other voting securities required under applicable law, NRG's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and NRG's Bylaws to approve the Proposals and to elect the Stockholder Nominees.
