Exelon Response Letter to NRG Regarding Nominations to NRG Board

CHICAGO (March 26, 2009) – Exelon Corporation (NYSE: EXC) today sent the following letter in response to NRG’s letter requesting that Exelon withdraw its proposals to expand the size of the NRG Board of Directors.

March 26, 2009

Mr. Howard Cosgrove,
Chairman of the Board
Mr. David Crane,
President and Chief Executive Officer
NRG Energy, Inc.
211 Carnegie Center
Princeton, NJ 08540

Dear Howard and David:

I received your letter earlier today requesting that Exelon Corporation withdraw its proposals to expand the size of the NRG Board of Directors. Your statement that a change of control would occur under NRG’s senior credit agreement and indentures in the case of “the failure of a majority of the NRG directors to be ‘continuing directors’ (as such term is defined in the indentures and the credit agreement)” is a misstatement of the terms of your debt instruments. These instruments actually provide that a change of control would occur if “a majority of the members of the Board of Directors of [NRG] are not Continuing Directors” (as defined in the indentures and senior credit agreement). An NRG Board of nine NRG incumbent directors and the nine independent nominees proposed by Exelon would not result in a change of control under the NRG indentures or senior credit agreement.

We agree that it would be irresponsible to allow the election of the independent nominees proposed by Exelon to result in a change of control under the NRG indentures and senior credit agreement. Because of our desire to avoid that result, Exelon proposed nominees to fill only five of the seven vacancies resulting from the expansion of the NRG Board with the expectation that NRG would propose a full competing slate. As a result of your appointment of Pastor Caldwell as a Director, the independent nominees proposed by Exelon will, at most, constitute 50.0% of the NRG Board and NOT a majority, even if you do not appoint an additional director.

Given that the election of the independent nominees proposed by Exelon will not constitute a change of control, I submit that it is unfair of you to seek to deprive your shareholders of the right to vote for such nominees.

We look forward to the opportunity to sit down with you and discuss the merits of our transaction and, should there be any remaining doubt, how the election of the independent nominees proposed by Exelon will not cause any acceleration of NRG debt.

Sincerely,

John W. Rowe
