All Your Hard Work in One Place – Exelon’s Summary Annual Reports and Proxy Statement

What we do at Exelon every day helps contribute to the company’s success and provides value to our shareholders, our communities and ourselves. Each spring, we tell our story to the shareholder and financial community through reports that highlight the previous year’s achievements and outline our strategy for the current year. These documents, the 2017 Summary Annual Report, 2017 Summary Annual Report Financial Section and 2018 Proxy Statement, are now available on the exeloncorp.com homepage.

Our 2017 Summary Annual Report recaps performance last year through stories from each operating company that show how we live our purpose in every action at work and in our communities every day and the Financial Report includes summaries of the financial results achieved.

Exelon’s 2018 Proxy Statement has undergone a significant makeover to address topics of growing shareholder interest, including our newly articulated purpose: Powering a Cleaner and Brighter Future for our Customers and Communities. It includes highlights of our 2017 financial and operational performance, regulatory and policy matters, and employee and community initiatives. The Proxy Statement also provides details about the 12 nominees for Exelon’s board of directors, including the skills and talents they bring to board service. If you own Exelon shares through the 401(k) Savings Plan, the Employee Stock Purchase Plan or another way – remember to exercise your right to vote! Look for more details by e-mail or in your mail box at home.

Please take the time to review these documents, your achievements and the important role you play in Exelon’s success.
